

DIY Lawn Games for the Family

Flamingo Ring Toss

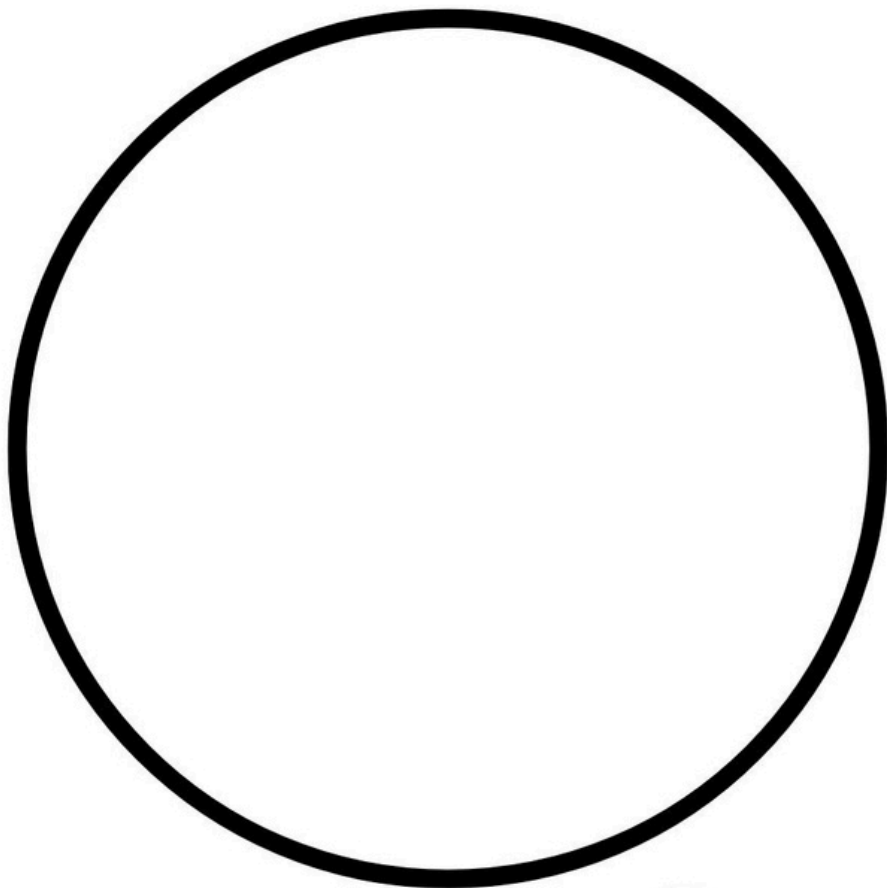

Does it get any cuter? A sturdy pot filled with sand and Dollar Store Flamingos are perfect for this ring toss game! Make it a night time event by using the light up rings found in the party aisle!

Bean Bag Bowl Toss

This fun bean bag game is simple and inexpensive with plastic bowls gathered from the Dollar Store. Create the number tags using pre-cuts (or cut yours from this stencil)

Make your bean bags using the attached pattern.

Cut 6 of each from 8.5 x 11" cardstock
in contrasting colors

Write numbers, 5, 10, 25, 50,
100 and 500 in Sharpie
Marker on the circles.

Glue the Circle to the center of the Medallion (as shown below) and tape to each bowl in numerical order from easiest to hardest.

Bean Bag Bowl Toss

DIY Bean Bags

5"

Cut 2 5" squares of fabric for each bean bag. Pin with right sides together. Sew a $\frac{1}{4}$ " seam allowance along the dotted lines shown.

Turn inside out. Fill with dried beans, unpopped popcorn, pony beads or plastic "beans". Pin open spot together and hand stitch or machine stitch closed.

Another version of the Backyard Bean Bag Toss is to paint clay pot bottoms white. Paint on numbers or use vinyl stickers for the numbers!

Lady Bug and Bumble Bee Tic Tac Toe

A little chalk and some cute painted rocks make for a long lasting and adorable classic game. Make memories painting the rocks together! A little acrylic paint goes a long way in the fun department!

Backyard Scavenger Hunt

Find these things:

- ☐ a bug
- ☐ a seed or a berry
- ☐ a white and black rock
- ☐ something soft
- ☐ something bumpy
- ☐ something green
- ☐ something blue
- ☐ two different leaves
- ☐ a flower
- ☐ a stick that's crooked
- ☐ something you really like
- ☐ something round

Backyard Scavenger Hunt

Give everyone the same “Seek and Find” scavenger hunt sheet! The first one to come back with all the goodies wins a prize! For more personalized fun, create a scavenger hunt particular to your backyard!

Noodle Ball

Each person has a pool noodle and will bat the ball into the goals.

Create your playing field with inexpensive pool noodles.

For the goals, insert paint stirrers into the ends and then into the ground.